

November 2016 LOCO NEWS

Next Meeting: Tuesday,
November 8th 7:00 pm
Carlisle Reservation

Snacks: Gina Talandis, Lynn Kopinski, Debbie Swan

November Program

Building the Brantford (Praying Mantis) great wheel. Three men with spinning wheel knowledge and skills, a pile of wood, and some very expensive tools make three great wheels in a week.

There will be NO meeting with Beth Hines on November 22!

Due to all sorts of delays, illness, miscalculations, and all in all just how life goes, the newsletter is late, and I apologize. The minutes weren't able to be included this month. They should be emailed to you in an addendum before the meeting, or at the very least there will be paper copies supplied for all members at the next meeting. I will also bring printed copies of the newsletter.

Possible Guild workshops for 2017-2018

Your workshop committee is seeking interest-level comments on two possible workshops.

The mechanics of your spinning wheel – Amy Tyler

This workshop would cover the parts of your spinning wheel and how different yarns can be made by simple adjustments to your wheel. Different fibers are provided so you can see how they react as you make adjustments.

Suffrage in Stiches – Katherine Durack

This workshop would introduce you to Women's fight for Political Voice. It is a look at and the crochet stitches that allowed women to identify each other via the stitches they incorporated into their apparel.

Spinzilla 2016 Results are in! 5,507,622 yards of yarn spun!

Team Champion Louet North America, 296,849 yards

Rogue Champion Jeri Nokes, 28,592 Most Yarn Spun Monica Bittner, Team

Louet North America, 50,378 yards Thanks for taking your time to spin

during Spinzilla!

2016 Team Standing

#48. Team Black Locust Farm/Medina Spinning Guild/Team Cloverhill Yarn Shop 48,033 yards
