Program – Kumihimo Loom weaving with Lynne Kopinski and Renee Brown

Adjournment – 8:32pm (Program was still going on, but secretary was ready to go home!)

Minutes submitted by: eboni a. johnson

Lynn Kosinski and Renee Brown presented a Kumihimo Loom demonstration!

Ewe & Beth's Studio will be open each Tuesday [10 AM] throughout the month of July. Please join us for crafts, conversation, and a wonderful lunch ($5). The Studio will be closed the entire month of August because of fairs; however, we are thinking of taking some road trips - Toledo Museum of Art and Glass Museum, Perambulator Museum, Aquarium, what sounds interesting to you? Call or email Etta (440-774-3210 or Erowe1132@aol.com) with your preferences.

From Eboni:
Hello!

My name is Lindsay, I am the event planner at The Alpacas Of Spring Acres. We are a 150 acre alpaca farm/bed & breakfast in Zanesville, Ohio. We are offering a two-day weaving class for beginners here at our farm taught by Sherry Mummert on August 6th and 7th. All materials will be provided and will be working on 4 harness countermarch looms. The first day will be spent warping, and the second day will be working on weft. The class is $250 per person, from 9am to 4pm, stopping for lunch which we will provide.

There is a B&B on the grounds, and students can have 10% off of their stay.

Thank you so much! Lindsay
