Presidential Perspective Sept, 2019

I survived fair week! What a great week I had at the Lorain County Fair. All the work our guild did to get weaving and spinning entries in the fair paid off. We had 35 skeins of yarn entered along with - I cannot even count the number of weaving and crocheting and knitting entries. The guild was well represented. Thanks to all for entering and demonstrating at the fair. The Needlework Barn Department Heads were very appreciative of the volunteer help our guild provided. For those of you who participated, BRING YOUR RIBBON WINNING PROJECTS TO OUR MEETING. Let's have a look at the winners. Also, anyone who entered a spinning or weaving project in the fair will receive $5 from the guild.

Membership: Jean should be passing out membership books or have an online copy for all soon.

Service Project: It's time to start selling tickets. Make sure you get tickets at our September meeting.

Programs: If you have an idea for a program or LOCO lesson, share it with a program committee member.

Workshops: Take time to look at all the upcoming workshops. We have a program every month this fall.

See you at the September meeting,

Barb

On the lighter side:

I just found out it takes 5 sheep to make one wool sweater. I didn't even know they knew how to knit.

August 2019 Meeting Minutes

The August LOCO meeting was called to order at 8:08 by president Barb Enos with 33 members and 2 guest presents after the How to Organize Your Stash program by Lori Taylor and refreshments were enjoyed.

Motion 2019-14

Jean O moved and Beth H seconded to accept July's minutes as published. Motion passed.

Barb reported on finalizing fair entries and the LOCO entry reimbursement.

Please Look at the sign up sheets for demos, workshops, and the weave in coming up. We need everyone to get involved.

It's time to sell service project tickets.

44 members have paid dues to date.

Sunshine has sent 4 birthday cards since last report.

Gina reported on the new source for our LOCO wear with details coming next month.

HEEEERES BETSY!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

A NOTE FROM BETSY:

Just a short note of thanks to those who contributed to the fund to send children's books to my students here in Bang Kao, Thailand. Barb sent some wonderful choices via the sons of the Peace Corps country director. They live in Cuyahoga County and were willing to serve as couriers as they came to visit their dad on vacation late last month. It's a small world. Thank you, thank you, thank you one and all.

Unlike their counterparts in the US, Thai children are rarely read to at bedtime, at school or otherwise. So I'm trying to share the wonder of childrens' stories as a way to expand interest in learning English and discovering the world near and far. The students are so appreciative and sit attentively soaking up the words, ideas and illustrations. And I love their smiles as the pages are turned revealing surprises. Believe me!
Carry on!

August meeting

A much needed wonderful talk by Lori Taylor!

Next month: Are there any "after"
pictures from any members?

Lorain County Fair 2019

Some of the goings on

RICHARD PAYERCHIN — THE MORNING JOURNAL
Melissa Merrill of Wellington uses a spinning wheel to make a blue wool bracelet for Sammy Kinsinger, 7, of Columbus, on Aug. 25 at the Lorain County Fair. Sammy's mother, Jennifer Kinsinger, is a native of Wellington and the family returned for a visit to the fair.

Ribbon Tally for spinning and weaving:
Best in Show - 1
Best in Class - 2
Blue 1st Place - 17
Red 2nd Place - 14
White 3rd Place - 12
Honorable Mention - 5

We hope to have an official tally with names to archive for the guild next month.
