Presidential Perspective October, 2019

I just came back from our First Annual Weave-In and I am positively exhausted! Weaving, spinning, knitting, tapestry weaving, beading and felting for three days. Thank you to our workshop committee Sara and Margaret for all their hard work. While most of us were doing our thing, Sara and Margaret were up and about, making sure we all had a good time. I cannot wait to see all the finished projects and set a date for our "Second" Annual Weave-In.

Membership: Thank you Jean for all the work you put in to the membership booklet. If you did not receive a booklet or an email version, see Jean.

Service Project: We have one shawl completed, one shawl donated from Betsy Bruce and one shawl ready to weave. Birmingham is coming up and we usually sell a lot of tickets at that event. Make is a goal too sell at least 20-24 tickets yourself.

Fair: I will be calling my fair contacts with updates or new ideas for weaving and spinning for the 2020 Lorain County Fair. Send me ideas if you wish to see something in the fair book. Also, Medina fair has weaving and spinning entries and you can enter items in both fairs. Explore the possibilities.

Dye Garden at Mill Hollow: The garden had quite a few weeds this September. So Gina picked them and we dyed yarn at Mill Hollow with the "mystery" plant. Not our favorite color, but it was a fun project. We also dyed with the Bronze Fennel from the garden. Thanks to all who participated in the Mill Hollow Pioneer Experience.

Something to think about: Do you find yourself thinking about your next project while you are working on one? The inspiration, planning and prepping are complete so why not think of another project as you are executing one. You might think about a project related to the one you are working on or something completely different. I've mentioned before that everyone should have an inspiration board, notebook or a photo collection. I just went through all my cut up photos and magazine pictures and saw the possibilities of some "fair" winning projects. At the Weave-In I was inspired by the different textures and colors of yarn and the different structures and patterns. So many projects - so little time!

See you in October at Wellington Nature Preserve!

September 2019 Minutes

The September meeting was called to order at 8:05 by president Barb Enos with 35 members present after the very creative “Hidden Treasures” program put on by the program committee and refreshments were enjoyed.

Motion 2019-15

Ann D moves and Barb D seconded to accept the Aug minutes as published.
Motion passed.

President Barb reminded everyone to look at the table display and sign up for the many upcoming workshops, demo, and opportunities to get more involved. Tickets are available for our service projects. Please everyone help sell your fair share. $1. each or 6 for $5.

Jean passed out the new membership books to those who ordered them, and reported we are at 51 paid members.

Chris mailed 4 birthday cards since last report.

The library has the new crochet magazine.
