A NOTE FROM BETSY BRUCE in THAILAND

A big thank you to Guild members who donated for children's books and the shipping costs for the CARE package that Barb sent in mid September and arrived on October 7th. (the day of my dog bite episode, but that's beside the point).

Wish you could see the smiles on the faces (children and adults) when we sit down for reading colorful story books... Priceless!

Cheers!
Betsy

PRESIDENTIAL PERSPECTIVE NOVEMBER 2019

Fall is here! Chilly mornings make me want to stay warm and cozy and what a better way than under one of our service project shawls. We have one more month to sell tickets. Ticket sales help pay for all the supplies to produce the shawls and then the proceeds go to four terrific organizations.

Nature's Palette workshop sponsored by LOCO produced over 110 skeins of yarn. The colors were very fall-like. We dyed with tickseed, onion skins, pernambuco, marigolds, black walnut, pokeberry and even tried Kale this year. Sara and Ben dyed some fleece from their alpaca which dyed beautifully. Participants went home tired but with new knowledge and an appreciation for natural dyeing. If you would like to help or participate next year, start saving onion skins and some flowers next summer.

Challenge: Bring your challenge to our November meeting. I procrastinated and complained about my three choices, but I am pretty happy with the results. Should be an interesting night.

Service Project: Elizabeth is already thinking and spinning next year's project. Spinners needed.

Workshops: We are co-sponsoring the spinning workshop that is happening this month. Thank you Sara and Margaret for helping to organize with Medina Guild.

See you in November,
Barb Enos

On the lighter side: What that ?....it's not a mistake, it's a design element!

Many Thanks to Ann Davies for the October Presentation.

Not only is she a great presenter, but the information was something that we will help us weave, and spin, and just be artists, with less pain for longer. What a gift! Thank you Ann!

Another successful weekend at Birmingham Craft show. We sold a lot of tickets, but not as many as in previous years. We need to sell more to get a good donation going!
SELL! SELL! SELL!

Spinning Event in Oberlin during Spinning Week!

A lot of fun. We made new friends in the fiber community, introduced a lot of folks to the guild, and spinning. Elizabeth got play with a local puppy. A great day all around.

Nature's Palette Workshop

So much to learn. Karen and Barb organized all that information and made it fun to boot. A wonderful couple days.
