Challenge: June 2021 to February 2022

November, 2021

President Perspective,

It was nice to see so many familiar and new faces at our last meeting. We had members return after a long hiatus. Welcome back. We had one member visiting from Indiana and we had a few new faces join us. Welcome to all.

Officers and Committee Chairs: Just a reminder that this is NOT an election year. All positions have one more year. Someone asked me what the responsibilities of the president and other officer positions are and I will be sharing my thoughts and experience in a future newsletter. If anyone wants to join a committee please do so. Also, our Program and Workshop committees are always looking for ideas for us to get inspired and learn from. Help them out!

Demonstrations: So far we have one commitment for next year. March 29th at the LaGrange/Midview Library. We will be looking for volunteer spinners and weavers. More information will be available closer to the event. We are not sure yet about Mill Hollow Winter event. Wooster event will need our help Memorial Weekend. We will keep everyone posted.

Service Project: Our September raffle baskets provided enough money for us to send to organization(s) of our choice. The last few years we sent to Navajo Weavers, SEPA, Heifer Project, and Animal Conservancy. Bring ideas for this year to our November meeting so that we can vote in December.

Media Guild: Medina guild has had many opportunities for us to participate. Thank you to the guild. Gina has been adding information about the Medina Guild in our newsletter. Thank you to Nancy Page for being the liaison.

Donation: Colleen Jorgensen, daughter of Pat Harrison will be dropping some items off at our November meeting. She dropped some items off at a meeting once before. There will be some books and yarn samples.

See you in November

October Minutes

President Barb Enos welcomed many guests, new members, and members who haven't attended meetings in awhile to our October meeting at 7:12 with 39 people in attendance.

MOTION 2021-13

Karen Long moved and Irena Talandis seconded to accept the September minutes as published. Motion passed unanimously.

Old News: The Function and Color February Challenge

President Barb introduced the Show & Tell table and the new Show & Display table. Our meeting rooms have been reserved for the next year.

Treasurer Missy gave a financial report.

Workshop Sara asked members to come 30 minutes early next meeting to help present sheep to shawl ideas.

Program Karen went over the programs being worked on for the next many meetings.

Demo Chris presented the information from Grafton Library asking us to demo in March 2022.

Membership Jean reported 58 paid members and the books are coming next month.

President reported for Sunshine Chris that 4 Birthday cards were sent this month.

Refreshment Irena has schedule that needs filled in, please sign up with her.

Librarian Pat encouraged everyone to check out new magazine issues at Ginko Gallery.

Equipment Julie said to text her for equipment.

Nancy invited everyone to the Medina guilds Kilt making lecture.

SHOW & TELL

Gina: Linen and ice dying

Betsy: 5 tencel scarves including fringe twisting, 3/6 cotton towels in fall colors

Chris Strekely: knitted ear warmer

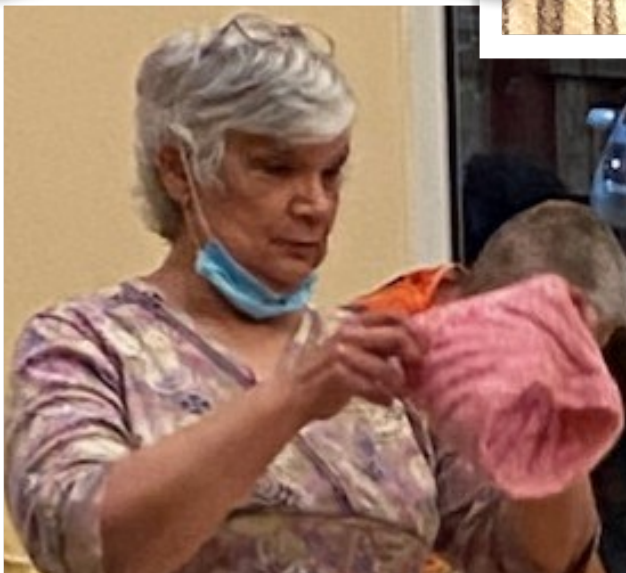

Vilija Deutschman: handspun woven wool blanket

Che Gonzalez: Shawl of merino/silk blend

Adopt a Native Elder Navajo Rug Show and Sale

Friday, November 12, 2021 - 6:00 pm MST

INFORMATION FROM THE WEBSITE:

“The 2021 Rug Show theme is titled, "I Have A Voice." We have but a brief window of time left with the traditional Elders, many of who are in their late 80s and 90s. Many of their stories had not been shared before because no one had ever asked them. Sharing their stories with you helps the weavers feel that we care for them and their lives.

“Their faces are their story of struggle, survival, and perseverance,” says Adopt-A-Native-Elder Founder Linda Myers. “Their hands hold the gentleness and softness of old age. Their rugs show the beauty within the weavers. It is a great honor to share the weavers' rugs and stories with you.”

To participate in this Virtual Event, visit our website on:

NOVEMBER 12, 2021 AT 6:00 p.m. MST “

<https://anelder.org>

Go to the website to see examples of traditional weavings, and a preview of the sale items for 11/12/2021.

This is a link to a tube video that describes the weavers and why the Adopt a Native Elder program exists. This is one of our organizations.

DEMONSTRATIONS OR GATHERINGS

I would like to thank everyone for their participation in and at various events this demonstration season. Some were a surprise and last minute, some took sometime to set up. I am putting together a calendar that will show when the events are so we can know when, where. This will help me to better know what is do able. The more members that help demo the more events we can do and inspire people to try our craft. I have also been pretty lacks about getting names and contact information for members that say they will be coming. This is for me to be able to contact you if there is a sudden change in plans. The best example was the recent cancellation of the spinning at Buehler's. I had no idea who was planing on coming. So I called a few regulars and had them get the word out. I understand we still had a member show up later that afternoon. I am very sorry that happened.

SPINNING WHEEL & CRAFT IN PLAY DATE November 6, 10 to 4.

We will be gathering at the Brunswick Public Library, 3649 Center Road, Brunswick, OH 44212.

This is our annual Fall get together, which is open to the public. This year due to Coved, we are asking you to bring your own food and drink, also while mask are not required, we are strongly encouraging them. The Library has good circulation but the windows do not open.

The meeting room is right inside to the right. If you need help carrying in your supplies call or text and we will come help, you may pull up unload and then park your car. Again please bring your own food, drink and mask.

ROC DAY, January 8, 2022, 10 to 3. at the Medina Presbyterian Church. All guilds welcome

What is Roc Day? The story as I know it, is that traditionally it is the day after Epiphany, when the spinning wheels came back out and the spinners got back to work. The weavers got another week off, till there was enough yarn spun to keep them busy.

We celebrate this by getting together on the Saturday nearest to Epiphany. We spin, weave, knit, crochet, any craft you can transport. We also do a gift exchange by raffle. So please bring a small gift or several. They can be labeled: For a Spinner, Weaver, dyer, crocheter, Knitter, or anyone.

But while that does sound somewhat organized we do need to have some assistance, in handing out raffle tickets, setting up tables, setting up chairs, organizing possible games, or crafting areas.

If you are interested in assisting please email me and we can meet before the the November meeting.
